'Night In Cairo' Will Feature Palm Reader

Do you ever wonder what you will be doing 10 years from now? . . . what your future mate will look like? . . . or how you will meet?

Madame A. Rae, brought in from "The Casbah" in Cairo for the occasion, will read your palm, look into her crystal ball, and disclose all to those at the Winter Ball, December 17, at Rio del Mar.

Bids are selling fast so don't delay getting your date for this event. The bids, which are on sale in the main office, are $7 per couple. When signing up for this mystic "Night in Cairo," don't forget to specify whether you want baked ham, fish, or the specialty feature of the evening—camel meat broiled in coconut oil, sanddabs, Nile pudding, and camel's milk cocktails.

Also, be sure to specify with whom you wish to sit. No changes can be made after the sign-up is completed.

All of the committees are hard at work to make the evening a success and it is something none of you will want to miss.

By 10 o'clock Tuesday, bids

Dysle, Brown On All-American

Ed Dysle and Ed Brown, stars of the Hartnell football team, received All-American honors today with the announcement of the official All-American junior college elevens.

Stocky, 215-pound Dysle, probably the greatest guard to play for the Panthers, was named to a first-team position on the mythical All-American. Ed Brown, who passed and ran for more than 20 touchdowns, was placed on the third team in a backfield position.

Bengston and Dufour Attend CTA Meeting

Mr. Karl Bengston, secretary for the Central Coast Section of the California Teachers' Association, and Mr. Stuart Dufour, a member of the organization committee, and president of the Salinas Council of the C.T.A., will attend the State Council meeting of C.T.A.

It is being held today and tomorrow in Los Angeles. They left last night and will return to Salinas Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dufour is working on a committee that is making a new state constitution for the California Teachers' Association.

Cassady Heads J.C. Association

Mr. Henry Cassady was elected president of the Northern California Junior College Association at the meeting December 4 at the University of California. He has been a member of the board of directors for the past six years. For the past year, he has been serving as vice-president of the association.

The gavel of the office was presented to Mr. Cassady at the luncheon meeting at the International House on the Berkeley campus. Dr. Luella Hall and Mr. Claud Addison, section leaders at the conference, were also at that function.

Serving with Mr. Cassady will be Mr. Harold Weaver of Placer Junior College, vice-president; and Mr. Calvin Flint of Monterey Peninsula College, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Cassady came to Hartnell College in 1940 when he taught German and also was advisor of the college publications. He is presently the dean of lower division.

Some 14 members of the faculty attended the meeting.

Panthers Play MPC Twice Over Week End

This year, with four basketball games scheduled to be played against Monterey Peninsula College Lobos, Coach Ed Adams' cagemen will start by playing host to them tonight in the men's gym. Tomorrow night will see the Hartnell Panthers traveling over to Monterey to give the M.P.C. Lobos a return game in Monterey's high school gym.

As yet, nothing is really definitely known about the Lobos, except that Coach Dan Dillon of the Lobos has three returning lettermen from last year's fledgling quintet. They are forward Frank Flores, center Don Prince, and guard Otto Contardi.

For the Hartnell Panthers, returnees are Whisler, Cracknell, and Ottone. Vessey and Reid are up from the JV aggregation to bolster the Hartnell team.

Wally Wong, all-C.C.A.L. guard from Watsonville; Howard Manes, another all-C.C.A.L. guard from Salinas; Ed Macha, Gene Freirmuth, and Jim Cordial round up the Hartnell Panthers.

Outstanding newcomers added to the Lobos' line-up will probably include Chris Hill, slim, 6-foot forward and former all-state player from Cleveland Heights, Ohio, and Ron Roberts, 6-foot forward from last year's Monterey high school quintet. Tallest member of the Lobos' squad is Jim Cunningham, 6-foot 3-inch center from Hollister.

As to date, Coach Adams is still experimenting with the starting line-up, but the probable starting line-up will be: Wally Wong and Cliff Cracknell, guards; Bill Whisler, center; Bob Vessey and Edward Macha, forwards.

Mr. Henry Cassady who was elected president of the Northern California Junior College Association last week.

Jobs Offered

Offers for secretaries, clerical workers, and salesmen have been constantly coming in, Claud Addison, dean of the occupational division stated. There are not enough well-trained persons to take the positions, Mr. Addison says.

Indications are that there will be some more openings after the beginning of the year and also in June.

Commission Will Adjust Budgets

Adjustment of some of the budgets was decided on by the commission at Monday's meeting. Difficulty was that Coach Bob Robinett's budget was overdrawn. There is a deficit from the Monterey game, and the awards budget has gone over the mark.

It was also suggested that the commission should raise $43 for the articles that were stolen from the football players during the Monterey game.

The $100 that Coach Robinett overdraw, and also $40 for telephone calls could be taken out of another football fund.

Deficit of $212.64 from the Monterey Peninsula College-Hartnell game would have to be adjusted by reducing several other budgets.

Mr. Jerry Girdner announced that the juke box in the cafeteria will have to be kept at low volume or President J. B. Lemos would have it removed because it disturbs classes in that vicinity.

WEE GEE

By ANNABELLE

Hartnell Alumni tried all kinds of tricks to win the basketball game last Friday but it was a gal in scanty blue tights who won the hearts of the spectators. Coach Darwin Peavy and his tumbling team put on an exhibition of their talents during half-time. The gal in blue tights—might say she was around two years old. She and three older females are on the team, so to speak.

The Cracknell Fan Club was out en force—at least a dozen strong—at the game. Quite a cheer arose from the gals when the he-man made his appearance dribbling the ball.

Richard Rampone, Loren Ingols, and Ada Bassi are receiving any donations for the Phil Trine Christmas Fund. A radio-phono combination will be given to Phil. Word has been received that he might be back home (Santa Cruz) for Christmas.

Lights were low and the records were on the mellow side. A lot of people worked hard on the various committees but the Freshmen dance was not as well attended as it should have been.

Better hurry and get those bids for the big Winter Ball at Rio Only a week away and tables are still available.

So you've read The Panther Sentinel. Stop! Don't throw it in that waste basket! There are many other uses for this little giant of journalism. I'm more than glad to pass this bit of information on to you so that you might use it and pass it on to others.

First, and the one of most importance, is one can use the Panther to protect his clothing when he wishes to sit on a dirty bleacher. Second, it can protect one's head in case of a rain or dust storm. It makes good bonfires for picnics, fireplaces and things of that order. Lastly, you can use the Panther to wipe your feet when entering your home when it is raining or is foggy.

Turn-about is fair play. Tonight Hartnell is host to Monterey P.C. Tomorrow night Hartnell travels to Monterey! Very brilliant discovery.

Hand-me-down from the Golden Gater—Some more dope: Howard Hughes, millionaire playboy, has contracted Robert Mitchum for a couple of pictures. Rumors have it that in one of the films Mitchum swims out to the reefers.

NIGHT . . .

nale will be a still picture of the Madonna against a choral background of "Silent Night." A very impressive program has been arranged. A preliminary performance will be given at the Woman's Club House today.

Other productions that are being planned are: "The Late Christopher Bean," by Sydney Howard, in February; "Antigone," a Greek drama, in March; and "Three-Cornered Moon," by Gertrude Tonkonogy, in May.

Bengston to Teach Pre-Education 40

Beginning next semester a new course called Education 40 will be taught by Mr. Karl Bengston. The course is designed for sophomores who are planning on a teaching career. Time will be spent in studying the educational system of the United States, the requirements of instructors, and the opportunities to be found in teaching.

Pictured are Mr. Samuel King (seated), President J. B. Lemos of Hartnell, and Mr. L. E. Wyatt of Salinas National Bank. They are looking at the new bank bookkeeping machine recently placed in the commerce department by the county bankers. This course will be open to students next semester.

Delta Psi Omega Holds Initiation

On Thursday, December 2, the first formal meeting of the Hartnell chapter of Delta Psi Omega took place from 7-9 p.m. in the Little Theater.

This dramatic honor society held its formal initiation with Mr. Harold Ulrici as grand director; Richard Cimino presided as stage manager; Colleen Dolan, business manager; and Gardiner Pond, head usher.

Those initiated into the Hartnell College chapter were: Donald Feliz, Dick Rohrbacher, Donna Musler, James Clark, Carmen Costa, Jackie Day, Marguerite Sander, and Don Lo Presti.

WAA MEMBERS COKE SELLERS

Girls of the W.A.A. are now busy running the coke concessions at the college basketball games. Money earned will be used to send delegates to the various athletic conferences in the future.

At the last meeting, plans were made to send three delegates to a conference at Dominican College in San Rafael next February.

HC Men's Club Plan Carnival

Hartnell College Men's Club is planning to hold a carnival next semester and is making extensive plans for this event. They are also sponsoring the newly organized flying club.

26 Enter Soil Essay Contest

Approximately 26 students are participating in the soil conservation essay contest. The contest is being sponsored by the Salinas Lions Club in behalf of the Salinas Valley Soil Conservation districts.

Contestants recently went on a field trip and upon returning started the 500-word essays. Credit goes to Mrs. Harper's advanced typing students who are making five original copies of each entry. An awards dinner will be held in January. Deadline for entries is December 15.

Debate Attended By Evans, Frye

Eleven colleges with 140 representatives met at Owens' Hall in Stockton, December 3-5, for a debate on the subject, "Should the federal government support public schools?" and extemporaneous speeches on communism.

Representing Hartnell College in the speeches were Hugh Evans and Thomas Frye.

The judging for the debates was made by the speech students of College of Pacific. The results will be sent to all the participating schools as soon as they are compiled.

Panthers Submerge Alumni, 50-27; Beat Fast Golden Gate Quint 52-43

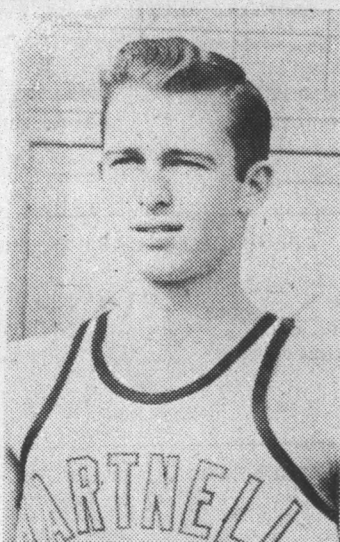

Playing an outnumbered and unorganized alumni team, Hartnell College Panthers' basketball quintet downed them by a score of 50-27. At the start it looked as though it might be a walk-away for the Alumni, but as the game wore on, it seems that the alumni didn't have enough playing personnel to help out in substitutions.

Alumni started out fast and for a few minutes kept up with the mighty Panthers. As they started to tire, Hartnell took advantage of it and came to wrest away the lead. After 17 minutes of the first half, Hartnell never gave up the lead.

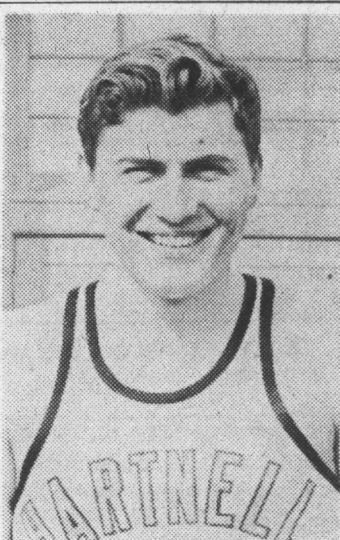

Bill Whisler started scoring for the Panthers but Dan Vidovich came back to score for the alumni. At the five-minute mark the alumni were leading 9-4 and this was their longest lead.

Hartnell Panthers led 23-17 at the end of the half and after five minutes of the second half were down, maintained a 30-23 lead. Scores were being made by Whisler, Cliff Cracknell, Ed Macha, and Don Keeney for the Panthers. Alumni scored only on free throws by Jerry Hoagland, John Eastman, and Ray Marnach.

Whisler and Cracknell divided high-point honors for the Panthers with 10 points each. Wally Wong, all-C.C.A.L. guard from Watsonville, scored the most spectacular two points when he was dribbling towards the basket and changed hands to put the shot in.

CLIFF CRACKNELL

ED MACHA

Paced by Ed Macha, former Chicagoan, the Hartnell Panthers continued their win streak by downing the stubborn Golden Gate quintet, 52-43, before a small but enthusiastic crowd at the Hartnell gym on Saturday night.

The game started off fast with the lead changing hands often throughout the first half. The well-conditioned city five fought savagely for the ball to keep in the game and at half-time left the court on the long end of a 22-to-21 score.

But the Panthers, displayed the second-half wizardry of the football team, struck fast with Jim Cordial and Ed Macha heading the way and pushed out in front to stay with only two minutes of the second half gone by.

The Golden Gaters fought back valiantly, but all in vain, to try and put themselves out in front as Tom Wong and Bob Wilkins started posting points from all over the court.

But the Panthers, not to be denied their victory, matched them point for point until the height advantage began to tell for Hartnell and from there on the local boys coasted to their first intercollegiate triumph of the season.

Macha garnered 17 points to pace the victors while Wong posted 10 to head the game losers. Behind Macha in the scoring came Bob Vessey and Don Keeney with seven tallies apiece, Cliff Cracknell and Wally Wong with five and Bill Whisler, who had an off night, with three.

Northern Junior Colleges Adopt Purity Code

The members of the Northern California Junior College Conference today adopted a program aimed at controlling the proselyting and subsidizing of athletes.

J. Paul Mohr, outgoing conference commissioner, from San Francisco City College, said the 15 schools approved the new program unanimously. Mohr was succeeded as commissioner by Paul Clymer of Marin Junior College.

The regulations are:

Training table—There shall be no training table and no special arrangements regarding price of food or menus; schools may provide meals for teams on trips; no outside organization may provide meals except at banquets or special activities authorized by the college; allowances for meals made to athletes shall not exceed actual cost of the meal.

Housing—Athletes may not be given preference in obtaining housing or in special prices for rooms.

Jobs—No preference may be given athletes in the hiring or in the pay received for jobs; all students, including athletes, must give full value received for the pay received on a job; no athletes may be encouraged to enroll in an institution on the promise of a job; the prevailing rate of wages in the local community shall be the maximum which a student may receive for either on or off the campus jobs.

Tickets—Not more than two tickets for the game in which they are competing may be allowed each player on the squad.

Mohr said there was a loophole in the new regulations in that no mention was made of scholarships. A special committee was appointed today, however, to look into that phase to see that the same principles as adopted be applied to scholarships.

In other actions, the conference members awarded the 1949 conference track meet to Modesto Junior College, on May 7, the Northern Division meet to Sacramento Junior College and the Southern Division meet to Hartnell College of Salinas on April 30.

Coach Ed Adams, director of athletics, and President John Lemos represented Hartnell at the conference meeting.

Cal Blues Dump Panthers, 34-26

California continued to hold its jinx on the Panthers as the Cal Blues waxed the Hartnell basketball team, 34-26, last Tuesday on the university court.

The Blues, fast and classy, caught the Panthers flat footed and in five minutes had built up a 14-1 lead over the hapless cagers from Salinas. The Blues led 23-8 at half-time.

In the second half the Panthers began to come back but by this time it was too late and so the jinx continued to hold the Panthers back from a victory over a California squad.

Little Monsters Once Again Lead Intramural Play

History seems to be repeating itself in the noon-time intramural basketball league, with the Little Monsters, champions of last year, once again leading the loop with half the season already gone.

The Little Monsters, paced by Doyle Burnett and Bill Whited, have met and downed all opponents thus far and have emerged with three wins and no losses. Next to the leaders come the Sanddabs from Santa Cruz, runners-up in last year's race, with three wins and one loss.

The Vinos of Monterey and Hisserman's Five, along with the Pi Dells battle it out for the cellar position. The games are played every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in the men's gym at 12 o'clock.
